ATTEMPTED BURGLARY

Burglars attempted to enter the store of the Bosworth Store Company Tuesday night, but were frightened away before being able to effect an entrance, although the rear door was somewhat broken. Suspicion falls on tramps, of which the community has had a good share the past few weeks. They are allowed more freedom here than in most towns and they gain a corresponding degree of boldness, making themselves a nuisance and causing much nervousness to women whom they pester with their appeals for food.

Berlin 11, Island Pond 4

A PERFECT CATHARTIC

There is sure and wholesome action in every dose of Foley Cathartic Tablets. They cleanse with never a gripe or pain. P. A. Morgan, Gore, Gar., writes: "I lately had occasion to use a liver medicine, and took Foley Cathartic Tablets. They thoroughly cleansed my system, and I felt like a new man—light and free." Chronic cases of constipation find them invaluable. Stout people are relieved of that bloated, congested feeling, so uncomfortable especially in hot weather. They keep your liver busy. For sale by John W. Thurston.

H. A. Standish was in Berlin N. H., last week in the interest of the Singer Sewing Machine Co.

BRIDES MIXED AT WEDDING

Honeymooners, Returning, Find That Their Certificates of Marriage Are in Error.

It is really a very annoying situation indeed. Here, Mrs. John F. Barrett, or at least the charming bride who until yesterday thought she was Mrs. John F. Barrett, finds that her marriage certificate reads that she is the wife of Robert D. Savage, whom she has been platonically considering all this time as her brother-in-law. And little Mrs. Robert D. Savage finds she isn't Mrs. Robert D. Savage at all in the stupid marriage certificate, but is there recorded as Mrs. John F. Barrett. It is really very annoying indeed, says the San Francisco Bulletin. Some months ago Margaret Casey and Elise Casey, daughters of James T. Casey, supervisor of San Mateo, were centers of interest at a big double wedding at Colma. Margaret went to the altar with Robert Savage, a young ranchman of Halfmoon Bay, and Elise did too to the ditto and exchanged vows with John Barrett, a contractor of San Francisco.

The Barretts went on a trip East. The Savages proceeded on an automobile tour through Southern California. Now they have returned to find that the marriage certificates, all duly signed and filed, have registered as husband and wife quite the wrong pairs. Margaret's name is where Elise's ought to be and, equally annoying, Elise's name is where Margaret's should appear.

Now, it happens that the time limit for making changes in legally registered marriage certificates has expired. A clerical error, but really quite annoying, you know!

Beattie was in pursuit of a deserter from Fort Allen and discovered his man at the post office in Bloomfield, just across the river. The sheriff grabbed him and in the mix up which followed the soldier escaped and swam the river toward this village.
